3. The prize may vary for each survey competition. The prize for each competition is specified in the survey invitation email.

5. Entries to each competition must be received by the date specified in the survey invitation email.
6. One entry per survey completed only.
7. Idea Farm will not be liable for any human error, technical malfunctions, lost/delayed data transmission, omission, interruption, deletion, defect, line failures of any telephone network, computer equipment, software, inability to access any telecommunications network services or the Idea Farm survey pages, or any other error or malfunction whatsoever. If such problems arise, then Idea Farm may modify, cancel, terminate or suspend the competition.
8. Idea Farm's decisions on all matters regarding the competition are final and no correspondence will be entered into.

10. Idea Farm reserves the right to disqualify any individual who it suspects is involved in any way in interfering or tampering with the conduct of a competition.
11. Within two weeks of the end of the competition, a random draw from all eligible entries received will be conducted by Idea Farm to award one or more prizes (in accordance with the competition set out in the survey invitation email). The winner or winners will be the first valid entries randomly drawn from all eligible entries. All reasonable attempts will be made to notify the winner or the winners within one week of the random draw using the contact details provided. If Idea Farm cannot contact a winner within ten business days of the draw, the prize will be forfeited and an alternative winner will be selected on the same terms and conditions as the original draw.
12. Idea Farm is not liable for the unauthorized use of any participant's Idea Farm registration by any other person. The prize winner will be the person whose details are registered against the registration used to submit the winning entry. Participants should ensure that their personal details registered for the Idea Farm are correct.
